

Elongated, aerodynamically shaped cab with a redesigned front reduces drag and maximises operational potential

Our newly elongated cab is shaped for maximum aerodynamic efficiency.

The redesigned front with an angled profile, smaller air intake grille, and new lighting signature reduces drag while giving the truck a distinctive, modern look. A re-sculpted front bumper further streamlines airflow, improving overall energy consumption.

